Preparing for Law School & Legal Career

Date: Thursday, September 22, 2011

Time: 4:00-5:00 pm

Location: Curb Family Conference Room, Heggblade Center, CMC

There is a key intersection between law school and the rest of life. Thinking about how to position yourself for a legal career should begin early, thoughtfully and be part of your decision to attend law school. Things like resumes matter, even in the application process. As the admissions dean as well as dean of career planning, this talk will discuss ways applicants can enhance their applications with a more thoughtful look at themselves as future lawyers. Also, the panel members will discuss what you can do in law school to truly enjoy and maximize the employment aspects of your experience.

Panel Members

Kathy McGinnis (University of Washington) - Admissions Committee Chair

Ellen Rutt (University of Connecticut) - Associate Dean for Enrollment Management and Strategic Planning

Columbia Law School

Date: Friday, September 23, 2011

Time: 10:00-11:00 am

Location: Curb Family Conference Room, Heggblade Center, CMC

Columbia Law School, founded in 1858, stands at the forefront of legal education and of the law in a global society. Columbia Law School joins traditional strengths in international and comparative law, constitutional law, administrative law, business law and human rights law with pioneering work in the areas of intellectual property, digital technology, sexuality and gender, criminal, and environmental law. The Admissions Officer will discuss in considerable detail the subtleties of Columbia's selection process, as well as the law school's financial aid procedures, career placement services, our faculty and curriculum, special enrichment programs, and internships.
