

CLAREMONT MCKENNA COLLEGE

The Rose Institute of State and Local Government

RESOURCES AVAILABLE AT THE ROSE INSTITUTE

Rose Institute conference reports:

- 1.) Solid Policy on Solid Waste: Where Will California Put Its Waste?
 - a. Explores the many different aspects of California's waste policy and the various options available to California to dispose of its waste.
 - b. Date: May 3, 2002
- 2.) Southern California's Looming Water Challenges: Finding Solutions and Fostering Accountability
 - a. Explore the many different aspects of California's water policy and the political factors that surround water issues.
 - b. Date: January 25, 2002
- 3.) Time To Draw The Line: Redistricting in 2001
 - a. Explores growing importance of the redistricting process through a multi-disciplinary approach that combines questions of law, new technology, and politics.
 - b. Date: March 23, 2001
- 4.) Managing Waste in Southern California: 2000 and Beyond
 - a. Looks at issues like the problem of waste in the San Gabriel Valley and the Joint Powers Agreement for Waste by Rail
 - b. Date: June 4, 1999
- 5) San Manuel Band of Mission Indians Legislative Workshop July 21, 1997

NOTE: To use these resources, please contact:

Rose Institute
340 E. Ninth Street
Claremont, CA 91711-6420
telephone: (909) 621-8159
fax: (909) 607-4288
hours: 8:00 - 5:00
roseinstitute@claremontmckenna.edu